- * Exhibit your Art in our Member Exhibits * Grow as an Artist ***
- * Support the Arts * Enjoy the Company of Art Enthusiasts ***

The Southern Shore Art Association consists of artists, family and friends of artists, supporters of the arts, and anyone interested in the arts. Everyone is welcome.

Our mission statement:

We create and stimulate interest in the visual arts by offering

- * exhibits ***
- * educational opportunities ***
- * social events for our community ***

SSAA is a member of the Michigan City Mainstreet Association and the Uptown Arts District and participates in the First Fridays at Five Art Walk with its opening receptions of monthly exhibits.

Members may participate in classes, monthly critiques, weekly plein air painting sessions during the season, as well as various programs and social events throughout the year. A photography club and abstract/expressionist/surrealist art group is active and always interested in new members.

SSAA is a volunteer organization. All members are encouraged to give of their time in areas of their interest and are required to do so if they show artwork in the gallery exhibits.

Please see reverse side (or next page) for application form.
